[REDACTED]

SUBJECT

: Agreement Between CIA and the Secret Service Concerning Presidential Protection

1. In accordance with your request, I have reviewed the attached papers regarding subject. As I stated to you, I was not aware that these papers were in Security the other day when I suggested to the Director of Security that it might be appropriate to amend the Secret Service Agreement to include support in regard to Presidential candidates.

2. I note that [REDACTED] recommend that the Agreement not be amended because of lack of manpower to provide Agents for the protection of the Presidential candidates.

3. I understand their concern; however, I feel the situation has changed since they submitted their comments in this regard. We are presently in the process of providing support to the Secret Service in the form of name checks and an audio countermeasure team for the Republican Convention, and will be required to at least provide a counter-audio for the Democratic Convention. There is no indication that a request will be received for Agents to provide physical protection to the candidates and I doubt that such a request will be received since the Secret Service has other Agencies, particularly the military, to call upon for manpower for physical protection.

4. In view of the above, and the fact that the Secret Service will be required to protect candidates until at least the election, I feel that an amendment to the Agreement would provide an aura of legitimacy to the support that we are and will be providing to the Secret Service. This is particularly important in view of the political ramifications involved. I would, therefore, recommend that the Agreement be amended to include Presidential candidates and would suggest that this be accomplished by revising the terminology of Article I, Paragraph D to include major Presidential and Vice-Presidential candidates. B

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

SUBJECT: Agreement Between CIA and the Secret Service
Concerning Presidential Protection

In light of the recent move by the President to supply Secret Service protection for candidates in the present Presidential race and the subsequent action by Congress supporting the President, it would appear that the present agreement for Presidential protection which the CIA has with the Secret Service should be revised. Amendment No. 1 to this agreement specifies those persons who may be protected and would not allow for CIA personnel to be loaned to the Secret Service for the protection of Presidential candidates. It is our opinion that a second amendment is in order and that it should either 1) add a provision which allows for the loan of CIA personnel to aid in the newly authorized protection of Presidential candidates or 2) should state the persons to be protected in terms of 18 U.S.C.A. 3056, which is that section of the law concerned with Secret Service protection of the Presidential family and those in line for the Presidency. Legislation is presently pending to amend section 3056 to include Presidential candidates, among those who may be afforded Secret Service protection.
